

How to Join a Go Pink for the Cure Fundraiser

Step 1

Go to the Go Pink for the Cure website, and click the Join a Team button. You can also use the Join or Donate to a Team box to search for the team.

The screenshot shows the Go Pink for the Cure website. At the top, there are logos for 'GO PINK FOR THE CURE' and 'susan G. Komen.' along with navigation links: 'About', 'FAQ', 'Champion Cureleaders', 'Shop', 'FIND A FUNDRAISER', 'DONATE', and 'LOGIN'. Below the header, there's a section titled 'Go Pink for the Cure: A Fundraising Program for Sports and Schools' with a sub-header 'Take your game to the next level while making an impact in the fight to end breast cancer.' and two buttons: 'Start a Fundraiser' and 'Join a Team Fundraiser'. A photo of a sports team in pink jerseys is shown. Below this is a pink banner with the text 'Raise lifesaving funds with your school, team or sports league' and a paragraph about the program. The main content area has three columns: 'Create a Donation Page' (with a heart icon and a 'Create a Page' button), 'Start a Fundraiser' (with a heart icon and a 'Create a Team' button), and 'Join a Fundraiser' (with a group of people icon and a 'Join a Team' button). A large yellow arrow points to the 'Join a Team' button. At the bottom, there's a section titled 'Support a Go Pink for the Cure Fundraiser' with two search boxes: 'Find or Donate to an Individual's Fundraiser' (with 'First Name' and 'Last Name' fields and a 'SEARCH' button) and 'Join or Donate to a Team' (with a 'Team Name' field and a 'SEARCH' button). A large yellow arrow points to the 'SEARCH' button in the 'Join or Donate to a Team' section.

Please take a moment to read the following waiver.

Fundraising for Susan G. Komen®
GUIDELINES

Susan G. Komen ("Komen") is extremely grateful for the efforts of all individuals who fundraise on our behalf to help us in the fight against breast cancer. These guidelines apply to individual fundraising activities conducted by volunteers, including but not limited to: athletic events, birthday campaigns, memorial fundraisers, workplace giving, and community events:

1. Submitting Funds Raised. For security and accountability reasons, fundraisers are strongly encouraged to direct donors to online giving platforms. Any funds raised outside of personal fundraising website can be mailed by check payable to Susan G. Komen - DIY - Dept 41829, PO Box 801889, Dallas, TX 75380. Please reference the constituent ID. Funds should be mailed within ninety (90) days after the fundraiser ends.

2. Donor Data Usage and Privacy. Fundraisers may receive contact information for donors who contribute to their fundraising activities. This donor information is provided solely for the purpose of acknowledging donations and expressing gratitude to supporters. Fundraisers are strictly prohibited from using donor data for any personal business purposes, marketing activities, solicitation for other causes, or sharing with third parties. Donor information must be kept confidential and secure. Any misuse of donor data will result in immediate termination of fundraising privileges and may subject the fundraiser to legal action.

3. Sponsorships/Endorsements. Fundraising activities are intended for individual supporters, not businesses seeking to promote their goods or services. Fundraising activities for Komen may not tie in any sponsorship or endorsement promotions for products, businesses, other organizations, or services, nor may they be used as a platform to promote or market any business venture. Businesses interested in partnership opportunities should contact fundraise@komen.org. Individual fundraisers may not use their fundraising platform to solicit customers or promote their personal business interests.

4. Fundraising Tool Kit. The tool kit on the personal Komen fundraising website provides logos and other print materials for limited use while conducting and promoting a personal fundraiser.

5. Safety. Please ensure that all fundraising activities are safe and not inherently dangerous. Personal and third-party fundraising activities are not coordinated by Komen. The fundraiser alone is assuming full responsibility for any injury or property damage sustained related to these fundraising activities. If Komen learns that a fundraising activity is unsafe or inherently dangerous, it reserves the right to immediately terminate the fundraiser and remove the fundraising website.

6. Conduct While Representing Komen. By fundraising for Komen, the fundraiser agrees to follow applicable provisions of the Komen Code of Conduct. If the fundraiser conducts any activity that is not in alignment with Komen's values or that is injurious to the reputation of Komen, Komen reserves the right to immediately terminate the fundraiser and remove the fundraising website as well as pursue any other legal remedies.

7. Publicity Release. By fundraising on behalf of Komen, the fundraiser consents to Komen's use of their name, story, and photographs from fundraising activities for Komen's promotional purposes in connection with breast cancer awareness and fundraising. This consent is limited to materials directly related to the fundraiser's Komen activities and does not extend to unrelated purposes. The fundraiser acknowledges that any Materials provided by the fundraiser to Komen are truthful, accurate, not misleading, and that the fundraiser has full ownership to provide such Materials for Komen's use. You further agree that Komen may use such Materials in any edited form. The fundraiser further agrees to allow Komen to assign these rights to third parties in connection with Komen's breast cancer awareness and fundraising activities.

8. Indemnification. The fundraiser agrees to hold Komen harmless and to indemnify Komen from and against any liability, claims, damages, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from: (a) the fundraiser's personal fundraising activities; (b) breach of these Guidelines; (c) violation of any law or third-party rights; or (d) any misrepresentation made by the fundraiser. This indemnification does not apply to claims arising solely from Komen's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

9. Enforcement. Komen reserves the right to immediately terminate any fundraiser and remove fundraising websites for violations of these guidelines, including but not limited to: unsafe activities, conduct inconsistent with Komen values, misuse of donor data, unauthorized business promotion, or failure to submit funds timely. Komen may also pursue additional legal remedies as appropriate.

By electronically signing below, the fundraiser acknowledges they are 18 years of age or older or that they are the parent or guardian of a minor engaging in personal fundraising for Komen. The fundraiser (or parent/guardian) further acknowledges that they have read and agree to the terms of these Guidelines, Publicity Release, and Indemnification.

☒ I agree with the terms and conditions above and agree to Komen's Terms of Use including terms for posted content, and Privacy Policy.
