

OCTOBER 2, 2021 | DOWNTOWN HOUSTON | IN YOUR COMMUNITY

THE POWER OF ONE

Thank you for joining Susan G. Komen for the 2021 Houston Race for the Cure! This is your Race Day Guide that will provide the necessary information to participate in the virtual Race in your community. No matter where you Race, you are part of the ONE Community!

Race for the Cure® Virtual Event Day Schedule

9:00 AM | (Virtual) Opening Ceremony - Streaming on our Facebook Group | Zoom

Join us online for our opening ceremony and Race celebration

All Day Long | Walk/Race where you are

Hop on the treadmill, take to your neighborhood sidewalks or the paths of your favorite local park or trail wherever you're able to safely gather and socially distance with friends, family, and team members.

ONE Audio Experience |

Get ready to be inspired! Our event-day podcast is filled with stories from those affected by breast cancer as well as people helping to make a difference through research, care, community, and action. To tune in, search Susan G. Komen One Audio Experience on Spotify, Apple Podcasts or Google Podcasts.

Finish Line Moment |

When you get done walking/racing, don't forget to snap a selfie and head on over to komen.org/finishline to create your very own Finish Line Photo that can be shared via text, email, or on social media with #ONEkomen #racefortheCure

This is what ONE community looks like. View all the powerful moments from the Houston Race for the Cure and other Races and Walks from across the country. Share your event day photos on social with #ONEKomen and #RacefortheCure to have your photos appear on the wall!
